

SOME INDICATIONS
OF BETTER TIMESDUN'S REPORT GIVES A LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT.

Volume of Domestic Trade Increasing and the Labor Outlook Is Much Improved—Reaction in Wheat, Oats and Lard—The Failures of the Week Show Increase.

New York, March 23.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "Indications of improvement in business grow more distinct. Cotton does not rise because there is more demand for goods, but that there is more demand for goods is not the case. More valuable indications are that the volume of domestic trade gains a little, money is in much better legitimate demand, and the force of hands at work gradually increases in some industries and is others is restricted only by strikes, which are presumably temporary."

"The rise in cotton to 6.31 cents still seems to have scarcely any contact with the facts of demand and supply, but had a very substantial basis, nevertheless, if, as some maintain, more cotton had been sold in this country for future delivery than could be produced here until another crop comes. The rise in wheat, which started with the report of wheat in farmers' hands, has been followed by reaction, so that prices are lower than they were prior to that report, having fallen 2 1/2 cents for the week. The western receipts were 1,988,214 bushels, against 1,633,331 last year, and for three weeks were practically equal to last year's, while Atlantic exports are small. Corn has not followed, but after a rise to 5 1/2 cents holds the price of a week ago, the receipts being about a third of last year's and export insignificant. Pork has declined 25 cents per barrel and lard 10 cents per 100 pounds.

"The advance in wages of cokeworkers raises the cost of fuel for a large proportion of the iron manufacturers, but as yet does not affect prices of iron or its products, as no increase in demand appears. Copper continues weaker at 9.25 cents for lake. American products in February being 12,720 tons and foreign 6,739, while tin has risen sharply to 13.9 cents. Lead is weaker with heavy sales, 2,500 tons to domestic and 1,500 to foreign takers at 3.05 to 3.1 cents, but large sales of tinplate are reported with prices a shade stronger.

"The rise in cotton has stimulated buying of goods and given confidence to agents. Heavy transactions and some advance in price appear in southern coarse goods, but not as yet in the fines. While many orders are detained by labor difficulties, there is also much complaint of cancellations, which appear to be justified in some cases by inferior quality, but in others not justified at all. Orders for fall are at present small and new business has been quiet. Sales of wool gradually decrease, and for the week are smaller than last year, 4,174,900 pounds against 4,535,500. For three weeks of March sales indicated about 70 per cent of a full consumption.

"Failures during the last week have been 278 in the United States against 244 last year, and 35 in Canada against 50 last year."

NO MONEY FOR MILITIA.

New Orleans Exchange Informs the Governor Funds Are Exhausted.

New Orleans, La., March 23.—The result of the meeting of the conference committee of exchanges on the labor troubles is embodied in the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted and which has been sent to the governor: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the conference committee, in response to the governor's inquiry, that having already more than exhausted the supply they have been unable to secure more funds." This resolution was the outcome of a request by Gov. Foster to know whether any more funds could be raised by private subscription in order to maintain the expense of the military on the river front. It cannot be told at this time what will now be done. One thing is sure, the military will not be able to maintain their vigil on the river front unless they are supplied with necessary money. The resolution will doubtless bring the levee trouble to some kind of a settlement.

BIG STRIKE IMMINENT.

Men in the Springfield, Ill., District Go Out and Others May Follow.

Springfield, Ill., March 23.—A strike of miners in this district seems imminent. Operators of two shafts have reduced the net price of mining to 33 cents, a reduction of seven cents, to take effect April 1, and others may follow suit. Fifty men in one of the shafts where the reduction had been made, have quit work, and the miners of the district held a mass meeting and appointed committees to visit the men still working in the two shafts and endeavor to induce them to strike. A delegate meeting of all miners in the district will be held here Monday. At Dawson the operators endeavored to reduce the price seven cents, but the men refused to work, and the old scale was promised. Last night the Federated Trades and Labor assembly of Springfield held a special meeting to confer with their representatives in the general assembly to urge the passage of particular measures pending in the legislature. Those considered and pressed for passage were: For the arbitration bill; insertion of clause in state fair building appropriation; limiting hours of labor on construction of buildings to eight a day; union label and trade mark bill; prohibition of convict labor being placed on the market in competition with free labor.

HAVE A NEW THEORY.

Police Believe a Woman Was the Assassin at Tontogany.

Toledo, Ohio, March 23.—Dr. Eddmon of Tontogany recently took a trip up into Michigan, and when he returned a stranger accompanied him. The latter soon began a systematic series of inquiries regarding the murder of Mrs. Peany, and has been working diligently on the case ever since. It has developed he is a detective employed by Dr. Eddmon. The county commissioners have decided to offer a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. The theory now is that neither Dr. Eddmon nor Miss Harting knew anything of the murder that night, but that a decoy note was sent to Mrs. Peany, which she believed to have come from Dr. Eddmon, and that the note came from a woman, who is now believed to have committed the crime without the knowledge of either of the parties who have been arrested.

BE FAIR WITH SPAIN
BUT WANT NO DELAYTHE GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN A DECISIVE STAND.

No Dallying to Be Allowed, And As Soon As the New Cabinet Is Formed the Members Must Do What Is Demanded in the Alliance Outrage—Europe Seems to Be in a Combine.

Washington, March 23.—Yesterday was the regular cabinet day, and the President and his advisers gave up most of the time of the meeting to a general discussion of foreign affairs. Two things were practically decided upon. Spain is to be treated fairly, but delays will be frowned on. The cabinet crisis is assumed to be a reasonable excuse for failure to consider the Alliance matter promptly, but once the new ministry is in working order Uncle Sam will insist on an answer to his demands. When the new Spanish cabinet assumes the reins the first thing to be considered will be something much in the shape of an ultimatum from the United States. Admiral Meade's fleet is handy to Cuba, and it is said that at the first intimation there will be a display of Yankee ships in Cuban waters, and they will not be at all particular about keeping outside the three mile limit.

In certain diplomatic circles there are rumors afloat that the administration is losing some of its enthusiasm in the Nicaragua matter. The right of Great Britain to demand indemnity is conceded. The way in which it is to be collected is the question at issue. In fact, intimations have been given to Nicaragua that Great Britain's claims must at least be adjudicated, and that if it is repudiated in advance the United States will withdraw the right hand of fellowship. At the same time it is said there will be no trifling if Great Britain shows a disposition to enforce the claims in any high handed manner. If Nicaragua can not pay a claim found due England will have to content itself with being in the position of an unsecured creditor of an insolvent concern. It is believed the administration will concede that Great Britain has a prima facie claim on Nicaragua, which should be paid, and that if the little republic concedes the same thing but pleads poverty Uncle Sam will see that its poor but honest condition is properly recognized.

What is troubling some people in the state department is the fact that Europe seems to be combined against America. First came the significant combination of Germany, Austria, France, Belgium, and Denmark against the meat trade of the United States. Spain at the same time, though a gainer by the discriminating duty on sugar, put the United States in the second or higher table of customs duties. It backed down from this position on a little bluff from this country about retaliation, but then wound up by firing on the Alliance. Now, while the United States is busy with the Cuban and Nicaraguan incidents, Great Britain, Germany, France, and Belgium are combining to make trouble in Venezuela. It begins to look as if it were getting to be a case of all Europe against all America.

AMEND CIVIL-SERVICE BILL.

Shanahan Offers a Measure in the Illinois Legislature.

Springfield, Ill., March 23.—Mr. Shanahan yesterday introduced a bill amending the civil-service bill in accordance with Gov. Altgeld's desire. By the terms of Shanahan's bill the salary of each civil-service commissioner in cities of more than 50,000 inhabitants and less than 100,000 shall be $1,000 a year and cities of from 25,000 to 50,000 $500, while not more than $2,000 a year shall be expended for clerks, etc. The salary of the chief examiner is fixed at $100 a year.

Representative Schwab introduced to the house a joint resolution providing for the submission to the voters of the state of a proposed constitutional amendment which will enable the legislature to submit to the people at one time propositions to amend three articles of the constitution instead of one, as at present. If it is adopted by the legislature and approved by the people many of the alleged defects in the constitution can be cured from time to time. Bills were introduced as follows: Mr. Burke—To prevent the manufacture and sale of butterine, oleomargarine, and other imitations of butter. Mr. Mounts—To compel insurance companies to print an annual statement in each county in which they do business. Mr. Snyder—To provide for labeling and marking of convict made goods manufactured in this and other states. Mr. Weston—To require all corporations organized under the laws of this state to maintain a bona fide office in the county in which, in its application, it states such office shall be located, and to provide that its president and secretary shall be residents of this state; also a bill to provide for a tax of 10 per cent upon the annual income of every safety deposit box, drawer or apartment; also a bill to regulate the traffic in baking powder. Mr. Kent—To authorize cities, villages, and towns to regulate persons and corporations owning or operating safety vaults; also a bill to suppress gambling in bonds, stocks or other articles or in the fictitious value thereof.

Mr. Pickrell called up on second reading his bill placing express companies under the control of the Railway and Warehouse commission. The house adopted the committee amendment giving courts of chancery power to enjoin express companies from doing business in this state if they do not comply with this act. The bill was then advanced to third reading.

The house adjourned until Monday at 5 p. m.

HONOR TO BISMARCK
WAS VOTED DOWNRESIGNATION OF VON LEVEN-
ZOW FOLLOWED AT ONCE.

Reichstag Refused to Pass the Bill to Observe His Birthday Although the Lower House Took Favorable Action—Emperor William Pleads for the Fatherland Defenders.

Berlin, March 23.—The reichstag refused to pass the bill to observe Bismarck's birthday, and Van Levenzow at once announced his resignation. The lower house passed the resolution by a large majority.

Berlin, March 23.—The Reichsanzeiger upon the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of Emperor William I., grandfather of the present emperor of Germany, publishes a decree addressed by Emperor William to the chancellor of the German empire. The emperor says "On this day, sacred to the memory of Emperor William I., I feel with especial keenness the necessity of making some provision, as he would have wished, for the men who obeying the summons of their commanders and rejoicing in the sacrifice staked life and health for the fatherland. I would, therefore, regard it with greater satisfaction if the officers, surgeons, officials and men of the army and navy who, in consequence of their injuries sustained during the time of service, forfeited their claim to a second year's active service in the calculations of their pensions, could henceforth have the difference thus caused made up to them. It would also give me satisfaction if the non-commissioned officers and men who took an honorable part in the campaigns of 1870 and 1871 or in the wars waged by the German states before 1870, and who are needy, could be granted assistance in the future. I do not lose sight of the fact that the circumstances admit the claims of only a number of men and that these only are considered. But it is my earnest wish that the gratitude of the fatherland should at least be manifested toward those who are in a position of indigence."

The decree then charges Prince Hohenzollern to submit the proposal and to carry out the details.

The son served as city recorder of Philadelphia for seven years, without pay, and he was defeated three times in the mayoralty race—in 1842, 1845 and 1854—but he was elected mayor in 1856. In 1858 he was defeated again, and he subsequently succeeded to the seat of the late Congressman Samuel J. Randall after the latter's death.

Talk of the Flour Rates.

St. Paul, Minn., March 23.—Flour rates received the entire attention of the Western Freight association yesterday. Chairman Midgley, speaking of the probable lake and rail east-bound rates, said: "I think they will open at 15 cents from Chicago and Milwaukee to New York. This means 17 1/2 cents from Duluth and presumably 22 1/2 cents from St. Paul and Minneapolis, as it is improbable that they will go back to the 7 1/2 differential, much as the Chicago lines would like it."

Say the Lease Was Void.

Milwaukee, March 23.—The Northern Pacific receivers have filed answers in the cases growing out of the demands by the receivers of the Chicago and Northern Pacific and Wisconsin Central companies for rentals on Chicago terminals. GET NO CONFESSION.

Hunt, Suspected of Killing Mrs. Holten Said He Was Innocent.

Springview, Neb., March 23.—An attempt was made yesterday at the Holten ranch to force a confession from the man Hunt, who is under arrest for the lynching of Mrs. Holten. While the preliminary hearing of Hunt and Miller was in progress County Attorney Lear took Hunt into a room, apparently for a private conference. Just after they entered the room a dozen revolver shots were heard outside, mingled with shouts and curses. Lear jumped and ran, locking the door of the room and leaving Hunt alone. In a moment later Lear returned and announced that the vigilantes had come and had killed Miller, and that they were now searching for Hunt, to kill him. Hunt was almost frightened to death, but the expected confession was not forthcoming. He swore that if the vigilantes had killed Miller they had slain an innocent man, as Miller had nothing to do with the lynching of Mrs. Holten. The officers are not satisfied that they have the right man.

Hung Up by the Wrists.

Denver, Col., March 23.—Every charge made against the state reformatory at Buena Vista is sustained by the report of the special committee of the state board of charities and corrections appointed to investigate the management of the institution.

Cruel and inhuman punishment, the testimony shows, has been practiced at the institution, and crimes shocking to morality are common. Men have been hung up by the wrists until they became unconscious. In one instance, it was testified, Deputy Warden Hoyt jumped upon a prisoner so manacled and strung up and hung his whole weight upon the suspended man. The whole management of the institution is shown as brutal and demoralizing. As to the financial affairs of the institution, it is shown that practically no books are kept.

All is quiet, the report says, in the other provinces."

Fighting between Umra, the khan of Jandol, and the Chitralis followed, and the latter were said to have been defeated. A later dispatch, however, declared that Umra was defeated. Feb. 28 it was announced that Umra Kahn was sending reinforcements to Dorsh Fort to meet the expected attack by the Chitralis, and it was also announced that Sher-Afzul, uncle of the late Mehtar, escaped from Cabul and joined Umra Kahn at the Dorsh Fort. Washington, March 23.—Preliminaries are being arranged for the framing of a new treaty between the United States and Great Britain concerning Bering sea seizures. The projected treaty is rendered necessary by the inaction of congress on the Bering sea seizure claims of $425,000. The purpose of the treaty will be, therefore, to create a commission to hear all the evidence and determine the amount of indemnity to be paid the seized sealers. After being signed the treaty will have to be submitted to the senate for ratification, and unless there is an extra session this cannot be accomplished before next December. United States territorial rights in Alaska as against the British claims there have again been brought to the attention of the state department. The fundamental fact to be kept in mind regarding Alaska and the joint British and American survey of last year is that the boundaries will not be finally settled until they have been made the subject of diplomatic negotiations between the governments at London and at Washington, under the terms of the treaty of 1825 between Russia and Great Britain, by which treaty our own rights must be determined.

T. T. CROFT WRITES TO THE GAZETTE

Death of Captain Brayton Made Him Think of The Old Rome.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—The Gazette of March 18, 1895, has just been received (at 4:45 p. m.) The item that struck me so forcibly as to cause this immediate recognition was as follows: "Miss Amanda Herkimer received a telegram this morning announcing the death of her brother-in-law, W. T. Brayton, which occurred at Washington, D. C. * * * 'I had been in my boarding place, the Forrester House, but twenty minutes when the mail man came in and the above notice caught my eye. It impressed me with the rapidity of our telegraphic and mail service, for I had just returned from Captain Brayton's funeral, at which I was pallbearer, together with Dug. King and four comrades of the G. A. R. It seemed somewhat wonderful to me that within an hour and a half of the time that I had hold of a strap lowering the remains of a comrade of W. H. Sargent Post into the ground at Arlington, Va., (General Robert E. Lee's old home), I should read that same comrade's death notice from home, many hundreds of miles away, therefore my excuse for this hurried recognition, of the fact. Where Comrade Brayton's remains are now lying, the world cannot produce a lovelier landscape, nor a more patriotic picture. Gene Phil Sheridan and more than 13,000 other brave men and true, sleep their last sleep at Arlington National cemetery, beside the lovely Potomac to await the call that summons them to again 'fall in' for duty in the armies of blessed, we hope. Captain Brayton fell dead on the public street from heart trouble, on his way to the place he was at work for the government, incidentally, but for his family's support in reality."

T. T. CROFT.

LETTER FROM SECOND'S RELATIVES

Man Who Was Killed By The Cars Came From New Brunswick.

Poor master S. R. Kenyon has received the following letter from a brother of Arthur Secord, the man who was killed by the cars some days ago. The letter is written from Apohaqui, K. C., New Brunswick, Canada. He says:

DEAR SIR—We received your kind letter on the evening of the 16th, with many thanks for your great kindness. I received a letter from my brother Arthur a short time ago. He said he had a good situation and lots of money. If so, please send the balance to father, that is above the expense of his burial. Or if he left any request to his parents, or if you know how the accident occurred would you please let me know as it would be a great comfort to the family circle. Yours truly,

JUDSON B. SECORD.
Secord had no money at the time of his death, and was buried at the expense of the county, so Superintendent Kenyon answered the letter to that effect.

KEEP THEM OUT

—all those germs, the seeds of disease, that are trying day and night to get a foothold in your system. You can't do it, unless your liver is active. That is all you have to depend upon, to keep them out of your blood.

The very best medicine for the liver and the blood, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Take that when you're getting thin, when you have pimples or eruptions, when you've no appetite and feel "run-down" (these are warning signals)—and you'll save yourself from serious illness.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION: Gentlemen—My wife, of whom I wrote you, is another woman as far as her health is concerned; since taking your "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Pellea," she says she feels better than she has for years. She has gained twenty-five pounds in three months.

Appreciation Of Faith.

Yesterday clearly demonstrated that the people, with one accord, are with us. Our large store was crowded from early morn until close of day. Not an inch of standing room. In fact we could have used 30 salespeople. It has been so all this week, and we appreciate such a patronage. We will endeavor to return by giving still more and greater bargains. Merchants, competing ones, say we are doing the dry goods business of Janesville, and we believe it. Will keep the good work up. With our irresistible spot cash, we can name our own prices in buying, and we always do this, for we have your interests at heart, and propose to sell you dry goods cheaper this spring, than some people buy them. No old accumulated stock either. All bright new 1895 goods. See large advertisement again for Monday.

A Card.

Although at present I cannot begin with new pupils, being engaged in teaching school and giving lessons from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m., almost every day in the week, I wish to inform all those interested, that I am still giving lessons on languages and music, especially on German, and will now make arrangements with new or old pupils for April and the following months.

Open To-Night.

This is one of the night's legitimate shoe stores remain open. We will close every night in the week except Wednesday and Saturday nights. Our name is to the agreement to do so, and it's good; a man who will break any such agreement regards his word as no good, and it is dangerous to deal with him.

LLOYD & SON.

Cost Cuts No Figure.

It's not a cost sale with us, its a 33 1/3 cents on the dollar sale, by this we mean 33 1/3 cents buys a dollars worth at the manufacturers price. It's a picnic for shoe buyers now. We'll never be able to offer such bargains until the pride of some other town goes up.

BABY CONTEST OPEN BALLOTS IN DEMAND

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN IN THE CONTEST.

Five Shares of Stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association Will be Given the Winner June 1—Value at Maturity Is $500 and It Is Non Assessable.

The polls for The Gazette contest for the babies is now open and the ballot will be found at the close of this article and will run until June 1, when the contest will close. Much interest is centered in The Gazette's offer to present the baby who gets the highest number of votes with $500 worth of stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association. It is a prize worth getting, for naturally it will be worth just half a thousand dollars. That will be a nice nest egg if kept at interest after maturity until the child becomes old enough to want to use it.

It will buy an education.
It will buy a building lot.
It will buy a piano and the lessons necessary to play upon it.

It is more than many people are able to save in a life time.
Of course all the mothers and fathers want it for their babe. How to get it is told below:

The polls opened this morning and will remain open until June 1. The baby that receives the most ballots in that time will receive a certificate calling for these five shares of stock. There are no dues to be paid, no assessments to be met, no installments to provide for. The stock stands for $500 in cash and on its maturity, which will be in nine and one-third years, the money will be ready. The prize is a handsome one—it is well worth winning and the conditions of the ballot are as follows:

From March 1 until June 1, a coupon will be printed in each issue of The Gazette.

Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.
The baby who receives the largest number of votes will receive five shares of stock in the Rock County Building & Savings Association, cash value, $500 at maturity.

The contest will close June 1 at 9 p. m., and the stock will be delivered as soon as the count of votes is completed.

as soon as the count of votes is completed.

Any non-subscriber who will subscribe for The Gazette and pay in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

No votes can be transferred from one candidate to another after being registered in this office.

Candidates must not be more than three years of age March 1, 1895, and must live in Janesville.

THE BALLOT.

The Publishers of "The Janesville Gazette" will give 5 Shares of stock in the Rock County Building, Loan & Savings Association to the Baby who receives the largest number of ballots.

Baby Contest

Interest in the baby contest is increasing every day and new names are being added to the list. If you want your baby entered for the prize send in the name. Five shares of stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association is well worth making an effort to secure. It means $500 in money in 1904 only nine years away. The association is one of the best ever organized. Its officers are well known to Janesville people and the stock is as reliable as bank stock. Sombody's baby will receive five shares of the stock the first of June as the result of the Gazette contest.

A Storm at Sea
Increases the discomfort of the voyager. But even when the weather is not tempestuous he is liable to sea sickness. They who traverse the "gigantic wetness" should be provided with Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, which quiets disordered stomachs with gratifying speed and certainty. To the hurtful influence of a tropic, malarious or too rigorous or damp climate, as well as to the baneful effects of unwholesome diet and bad water, it is a reliable antidote. Commercial travelers by sea or land, mariners, miners, western pioneers, and all who have to encounter vicissitudes of climate and temperature, cheer in pronouncing it the best safeguard. It prevents rheumatism and pulmonary attacks in consequence of damp and cold, and it is an efficient defense against all forms of malaria. It can be depended upon in dyspepsia, liver and kidney trouble.

MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord near the base of the brain and so sensitive is this portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.

Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these, deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.
Dr. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist has profoundly studied this subject for over 25 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, mania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc. are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by Dr. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00 express prepaid. Caution! Neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

Entered at the postoffice at Janesville, Wis., a second-class matter.

CAUCUS AND CONVENTION DATES

Former Will Be Held March 25 and the Latter March 26.

The republicans of the city of Janesville will meet in city convention at the common council chamber, on Tuesday, March 26, 1895, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for Mayor, City Clerk, School Commissioner-at-Large, Street Commissioner, Justice of the Peace, and Sealer of Weights and Measures, to be voted for at the regular city election to be held on Tuesday, April 2, 1895, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The several wards will be entitled to representation as follows: First ward, 7; Second ward, 5; Third ward, 7; Fourth ward, 5; Fifth ward, 3.

The ward caucuses will be called by the several ward committees for Monday evening, March 25, at the usual places.

By order of the republican city committee,

T. W. GOLDEN, Chairman,

Janesville, Wis., March 13, 1895.

THE CONTEST BEGINS.

The democratic city ticket is now in the field, and the republicans will recognize that some care was displayed in the nominations.

The objection to the ticket is that it is controlled by the democratic party, and the popular verdict against this party this year is defeat.

The argument that it makes no difference who is elected to city office, is a very flimsy argument, and is rapidly going out of use. It makes all the difference in the world whether republicanism or democracy is in the ascendancy, as has been clearly demonstrated during the past two years.

The republican party has in its ranks scores of good men who are well qualified to fill any city office, and there is no reason why any man whom they nominate, should not receive the hearty and united support of the party. The republican caucuses next Monday night should be attended by every republican in the city, so that the nominee will represent the popular choice by a large majority.

This year of all others is the year when republicans have a right to be enthusiastic, and united. Local success inspires confidence and it is important that the cities, as well as the state and nation are governed by the party that has demonstrated its ability to administer. It is safe to place in the hands of instructed delegations, the power to place in nomination a list of candidates at the city convention. Select men of good judgment and give them the responsibility of acting for the party. If this is done, and it should be in every ward, the ticket presented will be free from criticism and will meet with popular favor. If the caucuses are to be packed at all, they should be packed with enough republicans to act in the best interests of the party, and this The Gazette believes to be the popular sentiment, as the republican party cannot afford to be controlled by any clique or faction.

WHERE IS THE GOLD?

The gold of the country has been variously estimated at from five hundred to eight hundred million dollars. It has been stated on what was supposed to be good authority, that the banks were holding in reserve about two-thirds of the supply, while the balance was hoarded by individuals.

The last statement dated January 23, 1895, issued from the treasury department by Comptroller James H. Eckles, contains some valuable information, and relieves the National banks from any criticism along the line of hoarding gold.

It appears by the statement that the number of National banks in the country is 3,737. The gold coin in their vaults on January 23 was $115,000,000. The United States treasury on the same date had on deposit less than $100,000,000, so that the large amount of gold that the country has must be in safety deposit vaults, and in the always popular sticking leg by banks of the country.

There is no question but that large quantities of gold are hoarded in this class of depositories. People become alarmed and in thirty days more gold vanishes from sight, than any other class of securities, or a premium on gold is anticipated and capitalists lay it away in safety deposit vaults. It will be remembered that during the panic, deposit vaults were in great demand, in all parts of the country.

It is very evident that there is gold enough in the country for all demands and that the only thing necessary to set it in circulation is confidence, which represents after all, the capital of the country. A billion dollars in gold would be locked up just as effectually as half that amount, when confidence is lacking.

The great loss sustained by the country, through bad legislation during the past two years, is two fold, money and confidence, the latter is by far the most serious.

TO TRY THE CAR CASE ON APRIL 1

Flynn, Fraklyn and Crowley Refused to Plead to the Charge.

The alleged car burglars, Flynn, Fraklyn and Crowley were brought into the municipal court this morning and their case was set for trial April 1 at ten o'clock. District Attorney Jackson and W. G. Wheeler appeared for the state and William Smith for the defendants. District Attorney Jackson presented a demurrer to the pleas in abatement filed by each of the defendants, and the demurrer was sustained by the court. The defendants were then requested to enter their plea to the information filed by the district attorney, which each refused to do. Thereupon the court directed that the plea of "not guilty" be entered against each one of the defendants, and on motion of defendants' attorney, the case was set for trial on the date mentioned.

Miss Kate Field

Editor and owner of Kate Field's Washington, of Washington, D. C., a paper devoted to the cause of temperance, stated in a recent speech that the prohibition laws as enforced in the several states were not promoting the temperance cause, and her advice would be to make a moderate allowance of mild beverages. In her estimation this would help the temperance cause more than prohibition laws. Miss Kate's head is level, and as to mild beverages we recommend Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association's beer.

BAINES THE CHOICE OF THE DEMOCRACY

HE WAS NOMINATED ON THE FIRST FORMAL BALLOT.

City Clerk Bates Routed His Opposition—P. W. Ryan, P. J. Mout, M. S. Prichard and Ferdinand Quinn Had No Opposition—Judge Scanlan Wouldn't Be Bluffed.

For Mayor..... FRANK S. BAINES
For City Clerk..... GEORGE H. BATES
For Street Commissioner..... PATRICK W. RYAN
For School Com. at Large..... P. J. MOUT
For Justice of Peace..... M. S. PRICHARD
For Sealer..... FERDINAND QUINN

That's the ticket the democrats named last night to go down in defeat at the municipal election.

The convention was far from harmonious, and there were a number of ridiculous scenes.

"Judge" F. M. Scanlan was one of the shining lights. He made seven motions in seven minutes and got the convention at work in good shape. So far so good. Then he tried to make a nominating speech. That was different.

"Sit down!" someone cried, and the audience took it up. Catcalls, hisses and yells rent the air and grew in volume every minute. The "Judge" held his ground and refused to be bluffed. Finally he recognized the voice of Alderman J. B. McLean and wheeled around. Pointing his finger straight at the head of the alderman he said in a voice that was running over with black eyes and bruises:

"I will see you, Mr. McLean, after the convention adjourns!"

And the convention howled.

"Sit 'em", "rats", "put 'em down", "shut up", "sit down" and other forcible English was used but the "Judge" hung on and finally the chairman succeeded in restoring order and Mr. Scanlan put P. W. Ryan in nomination for street commissioner.

After Valentine's Scalp.

It was plainly to be seen as soon as the delegates commenced to assemble that "Dick" Valentine was to be turned down, and that perhaps, the entire programme would be changed.

During the afternoon self appointed committees were hustling around to find some available candidate for mayor with whom they could down Valentine. They wanted J. P. Baker to take it, but that gentleman had no aspiration to be led to a political slaughter house. Then they tried to find Dr. J. B. Whiting, but without success. Then the hustlers went for Frank S. Baines, and after considerable coaxing, he consented. C. C. McLean appeared early on the floor of the convention last night with printed tickets for Baines for mayor, and captured the delegates as they entered the hall.

"Baines won't take it," remarked one of Valentine's friends.

"Yes he will," replied McLean.

"We had a conference with him this afternoon, and he consented to make the run."

Then Mr. McLean continued the canvass on that line as the delegates appeared and he did his work well. Richard Valentine was turned down without ceremony.

The convention was called to order by Dr. O. P. Robinson, chairman of the democratic city committee. On motion of C. E. Moseley, Fred C. Burpee was elected chairman.

Scanlan Did the Work.

On taking the chair Mr. Burpee thanked the convention for the honor conferred, and said we had been under republican rule for four years, and he should judge by surveying the convention that the democratic party had assembled for business, and hoped that the next time the convention assembled, it would be under different rule.

"Judge" F. M. Scanlan then made his first motion—That J. P. Baker be elected secretary. Mr. Baker declined, whereupon P. J. Mout was elected to that position. Judge Scanlan then made his second motion—that the chair appoint a committee on credentials, but this was on modified a motion of B. H. Pulker, by adopting the list of delegates as published.

On a third motion of Judge Scanlan the convention took a recess to allow the different delegations to fill vacancies and on a motion of J. S. McGowan the chair appointed B. H. Bulker and Daniel Ryan as tellers.

On the fourth motion of F. M. Scanlan, the convention took an informal ballot for candidate for mayor, resulting as follows:

Frank S. Baines..... 36
R. Valentine..... 23
George H. Bates..... 4
George M. McKay..... 4
C. C. McLean..... 3
Dr. J. B. Whiting..... 3
J. P. Baker..... 1

The First Formal Ballot Did It.

On the fifth motion of Judge F. M. Scanlan, a formal ballot was taken, resulting in the nomination of F. S. Baines, as follows:

Baines..... 49
Valentine..... 23
Dr. Whiting..... 3

The chair declared Mr. Baines duly nominated.

Judge F. M. Scanlan then made his sixth motion—that Mr. Baines be declared nominated by acclamation, which was adopted.

Ex-Street Commissioner Charles Horn moved that a committee of three be appointed to inform Mr. Baines of his nomination and request his presence in the convention.

C. C. McLean—"Mr. Baines is not in the city."

Mr. Horn—"Well, then, let the committee wait upon him tomorrow."

Alderman Ed. Smith nominated George H. Bates for city clerk, making a very flattering speech in favor of his candidacy and M. J. Daugherty nominated Martin Dunn.

Bates Got the Plum.

The informal ballot resulted as follows:

George H. Bates..... 52
Martin Dunn..... 11
Harry Garbutt..... 11
Thomas Dowling..... 1

On motion of Charles Guttenberg, the ballot was declared formal, and Mr. Bates was declared unanimously nominated.

Alderman Ed. Smith moved that P. J. Mout be nominated by acclamation for school commissioner-at-large. Adopted.

Judge F. M. Scanlan then made his seventh appearance and addressed the chair. He undertook to speak, but his voice was drowned by cries of "sit down," "keep quiet," "hold your tongue," "put him out," etc. Scanlan held his ground and nominated P. W. Ryan for street commissioner, which was seconded by alderman Smith, and by Alderman McLean incidentally inquiring of his aldermanic colleague, "What do you know about Fifth ward street?"

C. C. McLean moved that Mr. Ryan be nominated for street commissioner by acclamation, which was adopted. E. P. Wixom moved that M. S. Prichard be nominated by acclamation for justice of the peace. Adopted. On motion of C. C. McLean, Ferdinand Quinn was nominated by acclamation for sealer of weights and measures. Adopted.

City Committee Named.

Fred C. Burpee was elected chairman of the city committee when the chair was authorized to make the following additional appointments of committee men:

First ward—J. P. Baker.
Second ward—Geo. H. Bates.
Third ward—J. S. McGowan.
Fourth ward—Isaac Connors.
Fifth ward—Ed. Smith.

C. C. McLean moved that the "city committee be authorized to fill any vacancy caused by any candidate falling dead." The grousome resolution was adopted and Mr. Scanlan and the convention adjourned.

Then the delegates quietly dispersed. Only the members of the White Light club lingered behind in hope of an opportunity to fall upon some unsuspecting candidate, whom they might "touch" for wet refreshments.

SMALL BOYS WERE IN SWIMMING.

A. T. Wilkins' Two Little Sons Were Pushing Ice Cakes.

When A. T. Wilkins came home the other day his two sons, aged eight and six years, couldn't be found. Their shoes and stockings were at home but there was no trace of the boys. Finally the prints of their bare feet were found leading off toward the river. Mr. Wilkins followed their trails and was much surprised when he reached the river to find both lads stripped and up to their necks in the icy water. Near by were a number of floating cakes of ice, and the lads were having a great time pushing them about. It was pretty cold sport, but the boys got something hotter when they reached shore.

C. A. SMITH WAS RENOMINATED

Beloit Mayor Again Chosen By a Mass Convention Last Night.

In one of the greatest political wars conventions ever held in Beloit, C. A. Smith was last night nominated for mayor by the republicans and E. M. Gammon was renominated for city treasurer. The nominations were both unanimous. The democrats will probably not put a ticket in the field, and if these nominees have any opposition it will be from a fusion ticket.

TO CUT UP $75,000 AMONG MANY HEIRS

WILL OF JOHN LIVINGSTON FILED THIS AFTERNOON.

The Milton Estate Which Inventories At That Sum Will Be About Equally Divided Among Neices and Nephews Who Are Scattered All About the Country.

The score and more of nephews and nieces of Uncle John Livingston of Milton, whose death is noted on another page, will now have their equal share of a fortune which inventories at $75,000.

The will of "Uncle John" was filed in the county court this afternoon. Seventy thousand dollars of the estate is in solid cash, or cash collateral, and five thousand in real estate. He had no children, but it appears by his will that he thought well of all his nephews, and nieces, of which he has a score or more scattered in many states. He kindly remembers all these relatives, bequeathing them about equal shares of his fortune, although none are specified in the will. This is left to the executors, who are to have proof of such heirships. The will will be probated at the April term of court.

RINGLING'S SHOW TRAIN HERE

The First Section Has Passed Through En Route For Chicago.

Ringling Brothers' circus is now passing through Janesville in sections, bound for Chicago. The first section went through a few days ago and the second one is expected almost any day. They will open the season at Tattersall, and Chicago papers say that place began to present a genuine circus appearance yesterday when Ringling Brothers formally took possession of the building. The first section of the train contained only the property wagons, band chariots, tableau cars and a part of the draught stock. Before noon all the horses and paraphernalia were domiciled at the Tattersall building. The other three sections, which embrace the menagerie, ring horses and and hippodrome effects, will pass through Janesville early next week. The show opens April 6, and although the plans for remodeling the interior are very extensive, it is expected that they will be completed several days prior to the beginning of the circus season.

WHO WAS ALICIA?

Young Mrs. Waterhouse finished the writing of a dutiful letter to her mother. The letter assured the anxious old lady that the writer was quite happy; that there was really no necessity for worry, and that mamma might make herself quite content at Biarritz. Geoffrey was the best of husbands, and although, of course, much engaged at South Kensington with his fearfully abusive experiments and his new book on steel fibers he was extremely attentive and kind. And she was, with much love, mamma's affectionate daughter, Helen Waterhouse.

"Mamma won't believe it," said young Mrs. Waterhouse, with a kind of comic despair. "She is always wanting to know about the skeleton. Thank goodness there isn't one!"

On the clean blotting pad was an impress of some of her husband's writing. A palette shaped mirror stood on the table, and half unconsciously she turned the pad toward it.

"Wonder to whom he has been writing?"

It was quite easy to see. Mrs. Waterhouse glanced at it casually at first, then, her face fiercely pink, with much attention:

"I want you, my dearest, to believe that I am quite true to you. I am bound by certain ties to others, but to you, my sweetheart, my own dearest Alicia."

"Alicia!" cried Mrs. Waterhouse aloud as she panted and sat back in her chair. "Alicia! Alicia who, I wonder?"

She knew his writing so well that she could scarce be deceived on that point. The whole thing in a moment was clear. Her dear mother, with a less cramped experience of the world, had been right, after all.

"There is a skeleton," said the trembling Mrs. Waterhouse. She tore her letter to Biarritz into many pieces. As the last fragment went into the ferns in the fireplace she felt a kiss upon her neck.

"Don't do that, please," she cried. "Beg pardon," said her husband. "Did I frighten you?"

He took off his hat and adjusted his pince-nez. His coolness almost took her breath away.

"I must say, Geoffrey," she declared, "that I can't help admiring your—your cheek."

"My love, I admire yours. I meant to have kissed it just now."

She took up a newspaper, and twisting it violently in her excitement made an endeavor to speak with calmness.

"I have been reading rather an interesting fragment, Geoffrey. Shall I tell you what it is?"

"Quote away."

Mrs. Waterhouse recited from the coin of vantage furnished by a rug the letter to Alicia. The professor dropped his glasses and looked intensely disturbed.

"Now, my dear love."

"Oh, no!" said Mrs. Waterhouse.

"My dear Helen then, will you allow me to say—"

"I only want to know one thing. Did you write this ridiculous stuff, please?"

"Why, yes. I'm not going to deny that. Of course it's only a part of the letter to the girl, but if you like I can tell you what happens afterward."

"I don't want to know. If this gets known, what will be thought of you? You will be the laughing stock of all your colleagues."

"That's very true," acknowledged Professor Waterhouse, with concern. "That's very true, and it must never get known. I can't drop the affair now, unfortunately, but, you know"—he smiled at his wife a little anxiously—"there really is no harm in it, and I'm not the only man who—"

"Really?" in a tone of remote and frigid interest.

"I frankly admit, though, that I should be very sorry for it to get known. Of course it seems to you a very foolish thing to do."

"By no means."

"But I really don't believe that I could have endured the strain of writing that new work of mine if at the same time I had not—"

"Let me ask you one more question, please. I understand, Geoffrey, that you are sorry now that you ever lent yourself to such a—such a despicable business."

"That's not quite the point, dear. He was recovering now his usual composure. 'That's not what I'm sorry for. I'm sorry to be found out. I wanted to keep it quiet. But there's no earthly reason why anybody but ourselves should know. After all every man has his hobby.'"

"Geoffrey, I won't listen to you."

"Well, my dear, I can't force you to, can I? I believe if you would only let me tell you the whole affair from beginning to end you wouldn't be so much annoyed about it. It really isn't so bad as you think. Alicia is a most delightful girl, and it has been a recreation for me, you know, and I have been slogging away so of late, and—"

The door slammed. Mrs. Waterhouse went up stairs to her room and hurriedly, very hurriedly, packed a portmanteau. There was time to catch the mail at Charing Cross, and she meant to get away to Biarritz, away from the stifling atmosphere of this house, away from London. She rang for her maid.

"Parker."

"Yes, ma'am."

"The mail goes at 8 from Charing Cross. I think?"

"It used to go at 8, ma'am," said Parker cautiously. "When we went away, if you remember—"

"Yes, yes, of course. I want you to pack a bag for yourself, and we will catch the mail tonight."

"Catch the mail, ma'am, tonight?"

"Yes, yes. Lose no time, please, and send out for a cab."

"Well, I never!" murmured Parker.

Mrs. Waterhouse had some intention of having one fine, big, square scene with her husband before she left, but there was little time to spare. Moreover, it occurred to her that she could be quite as bitter in a well composed letter to be dispatched from Biarritz as in a hasty interview.

"Come along, Parker," she called. "It's all very well to say come along," muttered Parker discontentedly, "but this is a rum sort of a game, and I don't 'alf cotton to it."

"We've got 20 minutes. Tell the man to drive carefully, but to drive very fast."

The most galling thing about the whole deplorable affair was the certainty that her mother would meet her at the station with an I-told-you-so-my-poor-lamb expression. Still there was no one else to whom she could go, and at any rate she could always control mamma. She always had done so.

Charing Cross.

"The mail, lady?" said the porter civilly. "The mail goes at its fifteen. It's later'n it use to be."

"Parker, will you get some papers? Get one or two for yourself, you know."

Parker, still rather inclined to be cross, went to the bookstall. It half restored the excellent maid to complacent submission to what she termed all this ramping about to find the new number of "The Lady's Own Chatterbox" on sale. It was her own particular favorite journal.

"We'll get in now, Parker," said Mrs. Waterhouse. "There's 20 minutes to wait, but we may as well take our seats. Seconds, please, porter."

They found comfortable corner seats. For awhile they watched the stont, perspiring ladies and the slim daughters and the pet dogs. The usually demure Parker sniggered so much when she saw two Frenchmen kiss each other that she dropped "The Lady's Own Chatterbox." Mrs. Waterhouse took it up and held it in her hand.

"I must read," she whispered to herself. "I must do something to keep myself from thinking. I shall faint if I don't divert my thoughts."

The "Lady's Own Chatterbox" lay on her lap. She put one small foot against the seat opposite and leaned forward to get the steady glare of the electric light on the page.

"Any more going on?" cried the inspector on the platform aggressively.

"We commence this week a story by a new writer, Walter House, entitled 'Alicia's Only Love.' It will be replete with romantic interest, and, in short, a wonderful picture of high class life of the present day, with all its faults and foibles."

"Now, then," cried the inspector on the platform in an aggrieved tone to a belated passenger, "are you going on there, or are you not going on?"

Mrs. Waterhouse began to read. Chapter I was headed, "The Countess." Alicia was half leaning, half reclining on an ottoman reading a delicately scented letter from Sir Harold de Beer. It opened thus: "I want you, my dearest, to believe that I am quite true to you. I am bound by certain ties to others, but to you, my sweetheart, my own darling Alicia."

"Parker!" screamed Mrs. Waterhouse, with a gasp of delight. "Come out quickly."

"Right away," shouted the inspector. "Stand away there, please."

"Here, stop!" cried Mrs. Waterhouse. She caught up her skirts and jumped nimbly out. An active porter seized her bags, and as the train was moving caught the descending Parker neatly and swung her round upon her feet.

"Ow's that, umpire?" asked the porter.

"O—u—t, out!" said the inspector. He turned his hand lamp to Mrs. Waterhouse. "Hope you're all right, ma'am?"

"Thank you, yes," said Mrs. Waterhouse breathlessly. "I'm all right now."

"Did you ever read this?" said one, picking up a 19 cent copy of "Sartor Resartus." "Mr. Smith says it's splendid."

The other took the little volume rather gingerly, glanced for a moment into its solidly printed pages, and with a contemptuous "Excuse me!" tossed it across the counter.

"Eating a cracker, you know," rejoined the other, making his escape through the side door.—Chicago Tribune.

Very Plausible.

Magistrate (severely)—You are charged with kissing this young lady against her will, and on the public highway.

Prisoner—She was in a bicycle costume, and I mistook her for my long lost brother.

Magistrate (briskly)—Discharged! Call th' next case.—N. Y. Weekly.

Perfectly Simple.

Patron—This vest is too tight around the waist.

Tailor—That's because you throw your shoulders back too much.

Patron—And the coat fits too tight around the shoulders.

Tailor—Oh! well, you shouldn't stoop over so.—Chicago Record.

Very Spiteful.

"Do you believe that Pushem's daughter was really engaged to Prince Isinglass?"

"Certainly not," she replied.

"Why?"

"The prince was never known to be financially embarrassed in his life."—Truth.

Necessary Preparation.

"I'm going to have that office," said the professional politician, savagely, "if it takes a fortune to get it."

"Very well, sir," said the astute campaign manager. "I will go out at once and announce that you absolutely decline to run."—Chicago Record.

Self-Betrayed.

Jimson—How do you know that Senator Cashit spent a fortune in trying to get reelected?

Weed—How? Because when he was beaten he flew into a rage, and in a violent fit of civic virtue he denounced his rival for corrupting the legislature.

Where Science ends and Common Sense should rule. Persons of sedentary habits are liable to indigestion or dyspepsia. These, in turn, will bring on nervous disorders, kidney complaints, constipation, etc. This is especially the case with merchants, students and scientists. They will give you the exact dimensions of Jupiter, the distance from Saturn to the sun, to a foot, but they cannot or will not tell themselves what will cure this train of disorders.

For ailments resulting from sedentary habits—inactivity of the liver, habitual constipation, etc.—the entire medical fraternity of Europe and America almost unanimously recommend the genuine Carlsbad Sprudel Salt and the Waters of Carlsbad.

Hon. L. P. Strickland Cured by the Wonderful Medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy. It is the Greatest Spring Medicine in the World.

Now is the time to prepare for spring. Everybody knows what the spring does for our systems—clogs the secretions, renders the organs inactive, depresses the nervous strength, and lowers the vitality of the blood.

If you wish to keep well, therefore, during the trying spring months, take the medicine which, above all others, makes people strong and well—Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

It cured Hon. L. P. Strickland, of 58 Taylor street, Cleveland, Ohio. He says:

"I have taken Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I feel like a new man. It has cured me of chills, hot flashes, bloating after eating, cold feet and shortness of breath. I have also had a fistula for over twenty years, and it has almost gone now. I cannot express how thankful I am that I used this wonderful medicine."

When such great physicians as Willard H. Morse, M. D., of Westfield, N. J., and Dr. Robt. W. Lance, of So. Woodbury, Vt., state out of their wide experience that it will surely cure, you can use it with perfect confidence.

When statesmen of national reputation like Hon. ex-Speaker Charles J. Noyes of the Massachusetts Legislature and Hon. John R. Prescott, of the Maine Legislature, tell you to use it because it cured them, you can use it with absolute certainty of beneficial results.

When eminent clergymen like the Rev. Henry Langford, of Weston, W. Va., and Presiding elder the Right-Rev. J. W. Walker, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, were cured by it, and by reason of their sympathy for suffering humanity urge you to use it and get well, you can know that if you take it you will be made well and strong.

Use it now in the spring when it will do you most good. It is a great physician's prescription, the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, the most successful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

FASHION IN MOURNING.

Crape is Revived as a Material Consistent With Grief.

Just now, says a fashion expert, it may be appropriate to say a little on the subject of the prevailing styles of mourning. There has been a great reaction from all the old world gloom and the elaborate trappings of woe used when the dread visitant had descended upon a household. A reaction, too, has set in from the outward monuments of misery into which conventional laws decreed that widows should transform themselves. Like all reactions from extremes, something like another extreme was reached, for from the wearing of many yards of crape it became usual to wear mourning for a dead relative almost without any crape at all. There were many things to be said against the undue use of the material. It was gloomy, trying to the spirits, and then, while well off people wore such costly and perishable fabric as conventional mourning, it was only natural that there should grow up a feeling among others, with appearances to study and very slenderly endowed purses, that they should expend large sums and clothe themselves in crape or else show disrespect to their dearly loved dead. Now there are signs that a medium course between too much and hardly any crape at all is being adopted. In grief there seems to be a characteristic feeling that crape should be worn, and that it is now more frequently seen again is a sign that the idea of its being a material consistent with a grief stricken state has never died out and is now reviving. It serves the purpose of protecting those who wear it from heedless questions or unconsidered remarks.

The cape illustrated is suitable for light mourning, although it may be used for general wear, black being so generally employed in these days. It is composed of dull, fancy woven goods and has a bertha which forms godets. This is headed and bordered with black lace insertion, and the bottom of the cape is similarly finished. The medial collar is plaited.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

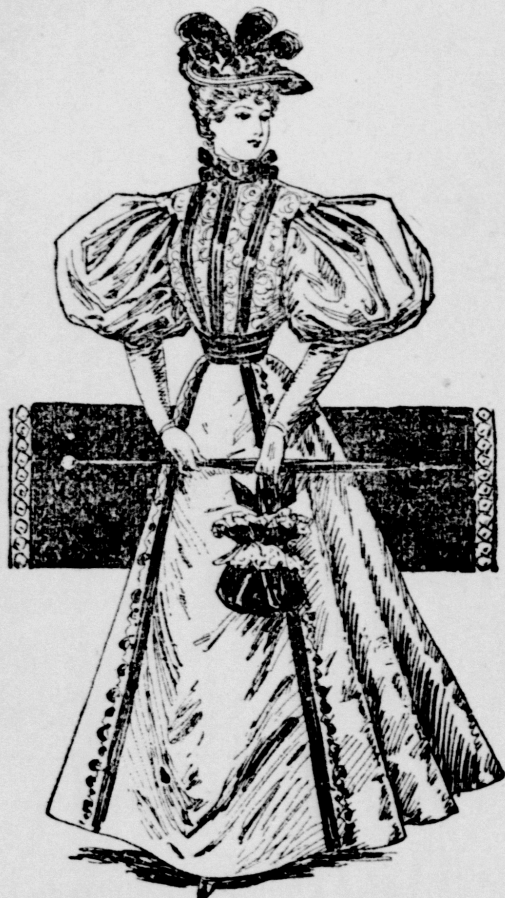

FASHIONABLE FANCIES.

New Skirts Show Plaitings Inserted at the Bottom.

Capelike epaulets are often seen on fashionable sleeves, the lower edge being cut upward two or three times to give freedom to the fullness of the sleeve beneath.

The latest novelty in skirts is cut as usual, but the breadths are sewed together only half way down and are allowed to fly apart the rest of the distance, the space being filled by a double plait of goods sewed underneath the opening. This arrangement gives the desirable flaring effect and allows freedom for walking.

Ruchings of velvet, lace and flowers are much liked for the neck, and some of the spring importations are very dainty. A particularly pretty one is of black lace mingled with cornflowers and black satin ribbon. It fastens with long ribbons in front, and trails of cornflowers fall upon the corsage.

Moreen is now made so pretty, with a beautiful colored silk stripe and the space between black and watered, that the effect is that of striped silk. The flounce trimming on the hem is cross cut and finished with a roll hem. Plain cloth in colors seems to be popular, the flounce being pinked. Striped fancy stuffs are also used. In very pretty colors, quite as pleasing to the eye as silk, yet cheaper and more lasting.

In England fashion is beginning to favor complimentary mourning, although "complimentary" does not so well describe the motive as "sympathetic." If any member of a family dies, the friends of that family go into slight mourning, as a rule, and it is one of those touches of nature that make the whole world kin, and as such is to be hailed as a very sympathetic and charming fashion.

The gown of which an illustration is given is made of silk poplin of a straw shade. The godet skirt has two lengthwise bands of black velvet and guipure in front, forming a tablier trimming. The bodice is covered with fitted guipure having short epaulets over the shoulders and is trimmed with vertical folds of velvet. The draped belt is of velvet, as is also the plain collar, which has velvet coques at the sides. The sleeves are of poplin.
